

Thanks Gentle Moon

Francis Pilkington, 1605

$\text{♩} = 70$

Soprano
1. Thanks, gen - tle Moon for thy ob - scur - ed light, My
2. But thou, false Ar - bour, thou did'st thank-less hide A

Alto
1. Thanks, gen - tle Moon for thy ob - scur - ed light, My
2. But thou, false Ar - bour, thou did'st thank-less hide A

Tenor
8
1. Thanks, gen - tle Moon for thy ob - scur - ed light, My
2. But thou, false Ar - bour, thou did'st thank-less hide A

Bass
1. Thanks, gen - tle Moon for thy ob - scur - ed light, My
2. But thou, false Ar - bour, thou did'st thank-less hide A

6

love and I be tray'd thou set us free, And Ze - phy - rus as ma - ny un - to trai - t'rous spy, her bro - ther and my foe, Who sought by death our joy to un - der-

love and I be tray'd thou set us free, And Ze - phy - rus as ma - ny un - to trai - t'rous spy, her bro - ther and my foe, Who sought by death our joy to un - der-

8
love and I be tray'd thou set us free, And Ze - phy - rus as ma - ny un - to trai - t'rous spy, her bro - ther and my foe, Who sought by death our joy to un - der-

love and I be - tray'd thou set us free, And Ze - phy - rus as ma - ny un - to trai - t'rous spy, her bro - ther and my foe, Who sought by death our joy to un - der-

11

thee Whose blasts con - ceal'd the whis - pers of the night; When
- go And by that death our pas - sions to di - vide Leavthee Whose blasts con - ceal'd the whis - pers of the night; When

- go And by that death our pas - sions to di - vide Leav-

⁸ thee Whose blasts con - ceal'd the whis - pers of the night; When
- go And by that death our pas - sions to di - vide Leavthee Whose blasts con - ceal'd the whis - pers of the night; When

- go And by that death our pas - sions to di - vide Leav-

16

I to her swore faith and she to me; But
- ing to our great vows e - ter - nal woe. Oh

I to her swore faith and she to me; But
- ing to our great vows e - ter - nal woe. Oh

⁸ I to her swore faith and she to me; But
- ing to our great vows e - ter - nal woe. Oh

I to her swore faith and she to me; But
- ing to our great vows e - ter - nal woe. Oh

21

be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses, That
be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses, That

be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses,
be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses,

⁸ be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses,
be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses,

be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses,
be those bow'rs still filled with ser - pent's his - ses,

25

sought by trea - son, That sought by trea - son to besought by trea - son, That sought by trea - son to be-
 That That sought by trea-son, That That sought by trea-son
 That sought by trea-son, That sought by trea-son
 That sought by trea-son, That sought by trea-son
 That sought by trea-son, That sought by trea-son
 That sought by trea-son, That sought by trea-son
 That sought by trea-son, That sought by trea-son

29

- tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis-ses. But kis-ses.
 - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis-ses. Oh kis-ses.
 to be - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis - ses. But kis - ses.
 to be - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis - ses. Oh kis - ses.
 to be - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis-ses. But kis-ses.
 to be - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis-ses. Oh kis-ses.
 to be - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis-ses. But kis-ses.
 to be - tray our kis-ses, to be - tray our kis-ses. Oh kis-ses.