"Now Israel may say"

Text by William Whittingham

Arr. David Peebles

1. Now Is - ra - el may say, and that tru - ly,
2. Now long a - go they had de - voured us all
3. The rag - ing streams most proud in roar - ing noise

5

If that the Lord had not our cause main - tained.
And swal - lowed quick for ought that we could deem;
Had long a - go o'er - whelmed us in the deep,

9

If that the Lord had not our right sus - tained,
Such was their rage, as we might well es - teem,
But loved by God who doth us safe - ly keep 13

When all the world a - gainst us fu - rious - ly
 And as the floods with migh - ty force do fall,
 From bloo - dy teeth and their most cru - el voice,

17

Made their up - roars and said we should all die.
 So had they now our life ev'n brought to thrall.
 Which as a prey to eat us woud re - joice.
